How to judge career

To know

Lesson D10.02

1. Reckoning of Dasāmśa
2. Attitude and Abilities
3. Effect of Exaltation and Debilitation in Dasāmśa
4. Deities of Dasāmśa
5. Houses of Dasāmśa
6. Signification of Planets

Dasāmśa is derived from Das meaning ten and amśa meaning division.

A sign of 30 deg is divided into ten parts of 3 deg each

Each sign has 10 Dasāmśa → the karma of 10 years and 12 signs = karma for 120 years

Karma as manifested action is done well (Karma Yogi) due to the inspiration of the Ten Avatāra of Viṣṇu while the knowledge to do the same comes from the Ten Mahāvidyā of Kali

Every action is karma and a blessed life is one in which every karma is done with the right knowledge and right inspiration

Why Dasāmśa?

1. Many people are born on the same day, often a few minutes apart. The Rāśi (D1) chart would be very similar and without the dasamsa, it would be impossible to decipher their career.
2. Sometimes, people born in different countries even a few days apart have very similar birth charts and yet their lives are very different.
3. Without the divisional charts it would be impossible to see differences in their lives.
4. Consider these two charts – Sanjay Rath and Whitney Houston.

Reckoning of dasāṁśa

1. The Sun is the significator of all rājayoga and the giver of work (and wealth – as āditya)
 2. Every sign is divided into 10 dasāṁśa of 3° each.
 3. For odd signs the dasāṁśa are reckoned from the same sign, counted zodiacally. [Ātman, Self (selfish?)]
 4. For even signs the dasāṁśa are reckoned from the sign in the 9th house, counted zodiacally. [Dharma, duty]
1. For every planet determine sign occupied in Rāśi and Dasāṁśa D10 chart
 - A. Both Odd sign
 - B. Both Even sign
 - C. Odd and Even sign
 - D. Even and Odd sign
 2. Yuga Rāśi
 1. Fire sign: Satya
 2. Water sign: Dvāpara
 3. Air Sign: Treta
 4. Earth Sign: Kali
 3. Draw Dasāṁśa chart by placing lagna, graha and special ascendants in the dasāṁśa signs.

Attitudes and Abilities

1. Planets in fire signs give pronounced natural abilities while those in water signs give abilities that are acquired after study (brāhmaṇa rāśi). Planets in air signs give skills after study and practice while those in earth signs give skills only after many years of labor.
2. Planets in exaltation show complete acquisition of abilities while those in debility show inability in areas ruled by them unless they have cancellation of debility. Such planets can bring great success if careers indicated by them are pursued (Srimanta)
3. Attitude depends on the houses occupied by the planets (changing attitude) and lagna lord (natural or intrinsic attitude) of Dasāmśa chart.

Houses of Dasāṁśa

1. Kārya bhāva (Action/Karma house)
2. Kāraka
 - ◆ 10th house - Mercury, Sun, Saturn, Jupiter
 - ◆ 6th house – Saturn (Service)

2. The dṛgpāla (also dig-pāla) is the administrator (devatā) of a direction of work and the fruits of karma (success in a work) is given by the śakti of the dṛgpāla (also called dṛg-vadhū in the Śiva tandava stotra).
3. Success is obstructed by the eight kāla of the kālacakra and it is only through effort and time (kāla) that the obstruction is removed.

Kālachakra and Directions

Red – objectives/ karmic directions of the dasāṁśa

Blue – blocks, obstructions of the Kālachakra (wheel of time)

Deities of directions should be worshipped to overcome the blocks

Service

1. The Moon ruling the bureaucracy should be in the artha trikoṇa (2, 6, 10 houses) or strongly associated with these houses.
2. The 6th house should be stronger than the 7th house. Malefic planets in 7th house also indicate service as they ruin business prospects.
3. Saturn the significator of service should be strong.
4. 5th house shows the power, authority. Ghāṭikā lagna should be examined for power and position enjoyed in the service.
5. Police, law enforcement and customs officers should have tamas planets like Mars (law enforcement, protection) and Rāhu (border) involved while espionage is the work of the nodes.
6. Venus rules the private sector while the Sun shows government power
7. Mercury rules banks, accountants and trade
8. Saturn rules labor while Jupiter rules all intellectual professions
9. Significations of planets should be well understood for an efficient use of the dasāmśa and other divisional charts
